Subject: Promotion of some employees to the ninth and eighth ranks

The director of Employee Affairs and Salaries,
Based on the authority granted to him, and in reference to Notice No. 13186 of 12/5/1412H [Nov. 19, 1991] from the Director General of Services on Promotion Committee Minutes No. 12 of 4/5/1412H [Nov. 11, 1991] regarding the approval of the promotion of four employees of this Presidency based on the attached statement for complying with statutory conditions; and whereas the aforementioned are good and active in their work and obtained an evaluation report marked "very good," and each of them deserves the salary of the grade following the grade to which he is promoted, pursuant to Article 18/b of the Law, as approved by His Excellency the President:

makes the following decision:

- 1- To promote the employees whose data is in the attached report, numbering four employees, to the ranks and positions next to each of their names. The first and second employees will be promoted from the eighth rank to the ninth rank, while the third and fourth employee will be promoted from the seventh rank to the eighth rank, as indicated next to the names of both employees, after they were vacated by the first and second employees. Each employee will have the salary for the grade following the grade to which he is promoted, pursuant to Article 28/b of the Law, starting from the date they commence after the issuance of this decision.
- 2- This decision will be communicated to all concerned parties for implementation.

Thus it was written...
